

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN	MAXIMUM CONTRIBUTION	DETAILS
Non-EU students with a study permit (regardless the country of origin) who have been awarded <ul style="list-style-type: none">international UniBs scholarships (STAR, LMINT, UNICORE)grants funded in partnership with Italian Government (AICS, IYT)	€ 156 (regional tax for the right to education and stamp duty)	They are exempted from the university contribution (second and third instalment)
Non-EU students with a study permit (regardless the country of origin) who have been awarded regional scholarships	€ 156 (regional tax for the right to education and stamp duty)	They are exempted from the university contribution (second and third instalment)
Non-EU students with a study permit coming from particularly deprived and developing nations (as defined by the yearly Italian Ministry decree)	€ 156 (regional tax for the right to education and stamp duty)	They are exempted from the university contribution (second and third instalment)
Non-EU students with a study permit coming from countries with a lower-middle income (as defined by the World Bank)	€ 1,000 (including regional tax for the right to education and the stamp duty) for all study programmes	In order to qualify for a reduction they must request the ISEE parificato (Equivalent Financial Situation Indicator) at an authorised CAF/CAAF offices (Fiscal Assistance Centre) in Italy
Non-EU students coming from other countries, who have not been awarded the above mentioned international or regional scholarships	Maximum contribution equivalent to that required of Italian citizens	In order to qualify for a reduction they must request the ISEE parificato (Equivalent Financial Situation Indicator) at an authorised CAF/CAAF offices (Fiscal Assistance Centre) in Italy