

- L'art. 2, comma 2, della Legge 240/2010 prevede che le Università Statali modifichino i propri Statuti in tema di articolazione interna. Il candidato esponga alcuni criteri suggeriti dalla disposizione.
- The University of Brescia joined the Panel for inclusive universities promoted by UNHCR - UN refugee agency. The Panel aims at supporting refugees access to research and higher education and at fostering their inclusion in social context and their participation in academic activities. It also promotes adoption of facilitating assessment procedures for their foreign qualifications and job experiences. The Panel core principles are equality and no discrimination; welcome; knowledge; inclusion; promoting differences; participation.
- La figura del Direttore Generale prevista dallo Statuto dell'Università degli Studi di Brescia e le sue funzioni.
- The concepts of Inclusion and Participation fall within a very broad perspective of university life where students have full rights and it is the task of the University to eliminate all physical, but also cultural barriers that may arise. The university life is therefore configured as a training ground for life, a place to confront, learn and learn to harmonize opportunities for growth.
- I Dipartimenti universitari secondo le previsioni della legge e dello Statuto dell'Università degli Studi di Brescia.
- The University of Brescia promotes internationalization through European and international cooperation programs and encourages the mobility of students, researchers and staff. The result is a wide choice of double degree programs, study courses taught in English, summer schools and other initiatives of international importance. In order to promote the internationalization of its academic offer, the University of Brescia has activated various degree courses partially or entirely taught in English.
- Il candidato illustri le fasi del procedimento amministrativo.
- Through the management of the Right to Study (DSU), the University grants scholarships to students who are capable and deserving but socially and economically disadvantaged, guaranteeing forms of total or partial exemption from tuition fees and contributions, and offering the possibility of using housing and catering services at favorable conditions. Thanks to its own funds and funding from external parties, our University also provides additional scholarships, degree awards and other forms of study support.