6. reference letter or name and e-mail of a professor from the school or university of origin (optional but recommended).

The Board reserves the right to require additional documents and/or interview candidates via Skype.

Candidates who have already apply for the pre-evaluation for the a.y 2022/2023

Candidates who have already apply for the pre-evaluation via the PICA procedure for a master’s degree taught in English (Economis and Engineering) and have the requirements to apply for the international scholarship must:

- apply again via the PICA procedure at the above link;
- choose the same master’s degree chosen in the pre-evaluation application;
- write the number of the pre-evaluation PICA application.

It is not necessary to upload again the certification of the qualification. It is mandatory to upload copy of the passport.

The outcome of the pre-evaluation procedure will be taken into consideration when drawing the ranking.

Art. 4

Preparation of the ranking list

The merit ranking will be drawn up by a special Board, appointed by Rector's Decree.

Considering what is indicated in art. 1, scholarships shall be awarded based on the results of comparative assessment of the applications received based on the following criteria, of which the Board will give proper priority and importance, accounted for them in the final report:

- suitability and consistency of the qualification obtained by the applicant for their admission to the chosen Bachelor’s or Master's Degree Programme;
- assessment of the applicant's university merit and curriculum vitae;
- be a national belonging to one of the “priority countries” as defined by the Italian Agency for
- Cooperation and Development;
- for Master’s degrees, to have obtained or obtain by 15 July 2022 the Bachelor’s qualification in a University with which the University of Brescia has official and active collaboration agreements;
- be in possession of a valid qualification obtained in a Developing Country pursuant to MUR Decree No.156/2021 or in Syria, Iraq and Pakistan.

In the event of several applicants with the same scoring, priority shall be given to the younger ones.

The applicants that will obtain their qualification by 15 July 2022, art. 2, will be inserted in the ranking with the condition of “suspended”; the actual allocation of the scholarship will happen after examining the certificate for the attainment of the qualification, which will be sent by email by and not later than 30 July 2022.

Any scholarships not allocated due to the depletion of winning positions in one of the ranking lists, shall be redistributed, without any change to the amount, based on criteria to be defined by the Board.

The ranking will be published on the University website <http://www.unibs.it>.

Art. 5
Renewal of scholarships

Students awarded with scholarships will have their scholarships renewed under the same financial conditions for the Academic Year 2023/2024, if they obtain, by 10 August 2023, at least 24 CFUs. For the Academic Year 2024/2025 (only for those students enrolled in a Bachelor's Degree) students awarded with scholarships will have their scholarships renewed under the same financial conditions for the Academic Year 2024/2025, if they obtain, by 10 August 2024, at least 48 CFUs.

Upon evaluation by the Chancellor's Delegate for Internationalisation, Cooperation and Development policies, the said deadline for CFU acquisition may be postponed for students who could not attend at least 2/3 lessons in the first semester of the Academic Year 2022/2023 due to problems in obtaining their Entry Visas for Italy.

Moreover, the students awarded with scholarships will have to attend, for each year of enrolment, an Italian language course issued by the Language Teaching Centre of the University. The attendance certificate is mandatory to renew the scholarship for the second year (and third year for those who are enrolled in a Bachelor's Degree).

Art. 6
Payment of scholarships

The scholarships of the first year will be paid on a monthly basis and with the deduction of the accommodation fees (if the student request accommodation in the university residences) as following:

- For the first 50%: the first instalment within 30 days from the notification to the UOC Diritto allo Studio of the Credit Agricole bank account information on which the scholarship must be paid. The entire amount for the a.y. 2022/2023 of the accommodation fees will be deducted from this first half.
- For the remaining 50%: upon obtaining 9 CFUs.

The scholarships for the second year 2023/2024 (and third year 2024/2025 for those who are enrolled in a Bachelor's Degree) will be confirmed after the verification of:

- registration in the academic year with payment of the first instalment fees;
- have obtained the CFUs provided for in art. 5;
- have obtained the attendance certification of the Italian course issued by the Language Teaching Centre.

The second- and third-year scholarship will also be paid on a monthly basis and with the deduction of accommodation fees.

Scholarship will be paid exclusively by bank transfer on the bank account provided by Crédit Agricole on the Student Card that allows students to access the university services and that can be activated free of charge, once enrolled.

Art. 7
Taxation

For scholarships awarded to students with foreign citizenship, the exemption laid down in art.3, paragraph 3, letter d-ter of the TUIR (Income Tax Consolidation Act) applies.

Art. 8 Enrolment

In order to enrol into the chosen Master's Degree Programme, the successful candidates must:

1. Follow the procedures defined by the MUR - Ministry of Universities and Research for the admission of non-EU candidates residing abroad to Italian universities for the 2022/2023 A.Y., procedures that will be available on the page <http://www.studiare-in-italia.it/studentistranieri/>

In particular, candidates must:

- apply for an entry visa to Italy for study purposes (type D) via the www.universitaly.it/ portal within the deadline indicated by the MUR. The university of Brescia will confirm the eligibility of the candidate on the portal; this confirmation is available for embassies and consulates in charge of issuing the Visa.
 - Have prepared before enrolment the following documents:
 - Foreign qualification and certificate of the exams taken legalised or with Apostille
 - Foreign qualification and certificate of exams taken translated into Italian or English
 - Declaration of value relating to the foreign qualification, issued by the Italian representation operating in the country where the qualification was awarded
2. Complete the enrolment procedure online and pay the first tax instalment approximately in September 2022, according to the instructions that will be sent via email.
3. Submit the entry visa for Italy and the documents relating to the qualification obtained abroad, indicated in point 1 of this paragraph, to the International Students Admission Office, according to the instructions that will be sent by email.

As an alternative to the Declaration of value, the University of Brescia accepts the Statements of comparability and verification issued by CIMEA.

The statements can be requested on the Diplome portal of CIMEA.

For further information visit the University portal at International students/degree seeking students/admission/CIMEA statements

1. a) Bachelor's Degree programmes:

- Take the Italian language proficiency test “TEST-ITALIANO-L2” CISIA if they do not have the CLIQ B2 level Italian language proficiency certificate (for further information write to internationalstudents@unibs.it);
- Register online and take part in the orientation or selective admission test for your chosen study programme, following the instructions in the notices that will be published online by July 2022. For programmes with a maximum number of students, the possibility of enrolling will depend on the position in the ranking after the admission test.
- After the language test and the admission test, if they are eligible for enrolment, successful candidates must complete the online enrolment procedure and pay the first instalment of the university fee according to the instructions and by the deadline that will be announced by email (and in any case no later than 23 December 2022).

b) Master's degree programmes:

- Take the Italian language proficiency test “TEST-ITALIANO-L2” CISIA if the programme they have chosen is in Italian and if they do not have the CLIQ B2 level proficiency certificate;

- Complete the online enrolment procedure and pay the first instalment of the university fee, approximately in September 2022, according to the instructions that will be announced by email.
2. Submit the entry visa for Italy and the documents relating to the qualification obtained abroad, to the International Students Admission Office, according to the instructions that will be sent by email.

The scholarship will be confirmed only after this office has verified the regularity and suitability of the foreign qualification on the basis of the documentation submitted. Scholarship can be confirmed only upon verification by the International Student Admission Office of documents presented by the student. It may request further documentation relating to the foreign qualification at the time of enrolment. The winners will be awarded places as part of the specific quota reserved for non-EU candidates residing abroad provided for annually for each Bachelor's and Master's degree programmes. Enrolments will be accepted until the reserved places are reached.

If at the time of enrolment the student is not in possession of documentation relating to the foreign qualification translated, legalised and with a Declaration of Value/CIMEA Statement of Comparability (indicated in point 1 of this paragraph), the student may submit this documentation by a later deadline defined by the Academic Senate. In this case, enrolment will not be confirmed until the documentation has been submitted and the student will not be able to use online services, take examinations, request certificates, or receive payment of the scholarship. If the student does not submit the required documentation by the deadline set by the Academic Senate, enrolment and the right to the scholarship will be definitively revoked.

Art. 9

Fees, accommodation and restaurant services

Scholarship recipients are exempted from the payment of university fees except for the regional fee and the stamp duty (156.00 €).

They also have a reserved place in the university residences which is charged at the first price bracket for services for the right to education. Accommodation shall be requested upon acceptance of the scholarship.

Catering service, if requested, is charged at the first price bracket for services for the right to education.

Art. 10

Incompatibility

The grant may not be awarded to students who receive/are receiving other grants from Italian public bodies for the academic year in question.

Students awarded with an international scholarship may participate in an international mobility programme for a maximum length of six months.

Art. 11

Protection of Personal Data

The processing of personal data provided by candidates for the aforementioned purposes is carried out in compliance with the EU Regulation - GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation).
