

Emergency Fellowships for Ukrainian Students and Young Researchers

The Department of Economics and Statistics of the University of Naples Federico II expresses its grave concern over the continuously deteriorating situation in Ukraine. We convey deep solidarity with the entire academic community in Ukraine, and we are particularly worried about the continuation of education and research activities of students and researchers in the midst of the devastating invasion by the Russian Federation.

As an immediate response, we invite Ukrainian students and young researchers in economics to apply for one of the following fellowships:

- Two fellowships for Ukrainian doctoral and post-doctoral researchers, to allow them the opportunity to continue their scientific work at our Department. The fellowships will be for the duration of up to four months, up to a total of euro 5,000 per researcher for the four-month period between May and December 2022.
- Two fellowships for Ukrainian students in economics and finance, to allow them the opportunity to continue their study at our Department. The fellowships will be for the duration of up to four months, up to a total of euro 5,000 per researcher for the four-month period between May and October 2022.
- One fellowship of 10,000 euros for attending the Master in Economics and Finance (<https://www.nse-unina.it/mef/about>) offered at our Department starting from next academic year (September 2022). University fees will be waived.

Eligibility

I. The fellowships are opened to candidates of Ukrainian Nationality who reside in Ukraine at the time of their application or who left Ukraine after the start of the invasion by the Russian Federation in February 2022.

II. The candidates should be researchers affiliated with a Ukrainian university or research institute, or members of the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine.

III. The fellowships will be awarded based on academic excellence, without regard to religion, gender, age or ethnicity.

Submission Guidelines

The following material should be submitted in English:

1. CV and list of publications (if available).
2. A short description of the candidate's research activity (for doctoral and post-doctoral researchers) or a short description of academic background (for students).

The submission file should be sent to the following address: mef@unina.it with the subject "Application for Emergency Fellowships for Ukrainian".

Selection Process

A committee of members of the Department of Economics and Statistics will evaluate the candidates based on academic and research excellence and will decide on the awardees.
