

SEMINAR

Human rights in the 21st century. Between theory and practice

Prof. Anna Podolska
University of Gdańsk

Chairpersons: Prof. Nadia Maccabiani,
Prof. Luca Passanante
University of Brescia

Friday, May 5th, 2023, 11:15 AM
Room A2, S. Chiara Building

The idea of human rights has been known for centuries. However, their understanding, content and scope of application have been changing. The goal of the lecture will be to confront the social perception of human rights and the problems that have arisen as a result of the development of civilization and that threaten human rights with the achievements of theory and jurisprudence in this area.