CYCLE OF SEMINARS

Environmental protection and Economic growth: enemies or allies?

Prof. Flaminia Starc-Meclejan
West University of Timisoara, Romania

Day 1

Chair: Prof. Vera Parisio
University of Brescia

Thursday, April 3rd, 2025, 2 PM
Sala della Biblioteca, Via San Faustino 74/B

Day 2

Chair: Prof. Nadia Maccabiani
University of Brescia

Friday, April 4th, 2025, 2 PM
Sala della Biblioteca, Via San Faustino 74/B

The presentation by prof. Starc on environmental protection and economic growth is split in two seminars. Among other European principles, the first seminar will deal with the impact and role of the “do not significant harm principle”, its relationship with economic investments and its enforcement in national systems. The second seminar will focus on the precautionary principle, considered a fundamental criterion for guiding a more comprehensive assessment of uncertainties, and will rest on ECJ’s relevant adjudications.
