Università di Brescia

BBPET

FIRST EDITION

Technische Universität Berlin

BRESCIA–BERLIN PUBLIC ECONOMIC THEORY WORKSHOP

4 DECEMBER 2026

Sala seminari della Presidenza · Via San Faustino 74/b, Brescia

The first edition of the Brescia–Berlin Public Economic Theory Workshop brings together researchers to discuss current issues in public economics. Contributions examine tax competition, profit shifting, pharmaceutical pricing, platform regulation, public-good provision, and retirement decisions. The workshop offers a forum to exchange ideas on how taxation and regulation shape economic behaviour and collective choices.

MORNING SESSION

Tax Competition and Profit Shifting

10.00 Paolo Panteghini (University of Brescia)
Where Profits Are Owned: The Cross-Country Incidence of the Global Minimum Tax

10.45 Marco Runkel (TU Berlin)
Tax Competition for Profit Shifting with Moral Consumers

11.45 Laura Levaggi (Free University of Bolzano)
External Reference Pricing Strategies in the Presence of Tax Competition

12.30–14.15 Lunch Break

AFTERNOON SESSION

Taxation, Regulation and Collective Choices

14.15 Enrico Minelli and Carmen Marchiori (University of Brescia)
Taxation and Regulation of an Ad-Financed Platform

15.00 David Piazolo (TU Berlin)
Preference Heterogeneity and Issue Linkage in Public-Good Clubs

15.45 Rosella Levaggi and Francesco Menoncin (University of Brescia)
Retiring in the Shadows: Tax Evasion and Early Retirement Preferences

16.30 Open Discussion

For remote participation, please contact rosella.levaggi@unibs.it

Dipartimento di Economia e Management

dem.unibs.it