8 June 2015, subject to availability.

Transport and facilities

Information to help students to travel to and from Brescia will be available on the Summer School website. For students coming from abroad (Europe) the most suitable option is flying to Orio al Serio Airport (Milan-Bergamo) or Valerio Catullo Airport (Verona). Low cost company fly to both airports, 45 minutes away by car from Brescia. Buses and coaches run between the airports and the town centre (close to the University and to the accommodations). For overseas students (US or other regions) the best solution is to fly to Milano Linate Airport or to Milano Malpensa Airport.

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

*Comparing Italian and Chinese
Legal Experiences: Between Tradition and Innovation*

Brescia 6 – 10 July 2015

DEPARTMENT OF LAW
VIA S. FAUSTINO, 41 – BRESCIA

The summer school aims at offering a deep education program on principles and characteristics of the ancient Roman legal system, as well as on the process of unification of the law. As regards the unification process, special attention shall be devoted to those processes taking place within the international integration frame of reference, and in particular within the relationship between the European and Italian legal experience, on one side; and the Chinese legal experience, on the other side.

The lessons addresses bright students from Italy and China, selected according to strict criteria in order to guarantee the highest level of attendance. Students applying to the Summer School are required to possess a five – year or at least four-year course title in Law, or a second level Master in Law or any equivalent title.

The subjects dealt with in the Summer School course are listed hereunder:

- Introduction to Ancient Roman law system and contemporary law systems within the romanistic legal tradition
- Main features of the legal systems belonging to the Roman family, with a special reference to European legal systems and to China
- Integration models in Europe and China
