THE RIGHT TO EDUCATION

It is a right of all the disable people to attend university and choose the curriculum more suited to their attitudes.

For this Important reason it is necessary to provide all the resources in order to permit an opportunity to live the better university life as possible.

The Deputy Rector for Disability and all the "Commission on Disability Issues" offer assistance to people with disabilities (dyslexia also falls into this category, according to Italian Law 170/2010).

Students with disabilities must be integrated in all the aspects of the university life. The social relations and all the collective events of academic life are unique experiences that will be part of the cultural heritage and emotional life about every single student.

The "Commission on Disability Issues" and the "Office for Inclusion" fighting to remove physical and didactics barriers and to create at the same time "a new culture of Disability". This is the point out, and it does not mean, in any way, to create easier courses and exams, but instead to promote the integration of disable students, by establishing services and initiatives times to improve the accessibility of all the activities at our University.

THE OFFICE FOR INCLUSION:

The "Office for Inclusion" of Brescia's University is situated inside the "Bruno Boni campus" in Via Valotti 3/B.
