

Ao.Univ.Prof. Dr. Erich Brenner, MME

Erich Brenner is a native of Salzburg, Austria, and was born in 1965.

He completed his medical studies at the University of Innsbruck, Austria, in June 1990. In October 1996, he completed his training as a specialist in anatomy. In March 2002, he obtained a "Master of Medical Education" from the University of Bern, Switzerland. Habilitation in Anatomy in October 2003 at the University of Innsbruck, Austria.

Since 2004 Associate Professor of Anatomy and from November 2013 to September 2017 Full Professor at the Division of Clinical and Functional Anatomy, Department of Anatomy, Histology and Embryology, Medical University of Innsbruck.

Main research areas: Functional anatomy of the musculoskeletal system; blood and lymphatic vessels; development and evaluation of medical curricula; medical education.

He is the author of more than 170 original papers and reviews and more than 30 chapters and books.

Member of (selection): American Association for the Advancement of Sciences, Anatomische Gesellschaft, TEPARG, New York Academy of Sciences, Deutsche Gesellschaft für Phlebologie und Lymphologie, Ges. f. Manuelle Lymphdrainage nach Dr. Vodder (President)

Editor in chief: Phlebologie (Thieme, Germany)